Welcomed to the market is this gorgeously appointed family home, positioned in a premium location at the end of a gorgeous cul-de-sac and directly opposite parkland. When buying a family home, location matters and the safety for your family not being on a busy street.

Number 6 is a strikingly brilliant and architecturally designed four-bedroom home that is not quite like the rest, with beautiful floating timber floors, high 2.7m ceilings, formal and informal living and an impressive 41m2 covered tiled alfresco. The home has been built over 280m2 under roofline.

As you enter the heart of this home you will find the spacious open-plan living area with high-raked ceilings with
